

Legacy Youth Panel

This year the Legacy Youth Panel are exploring and communicating the vision of the Legacy Company and acting as a focus group to support the work of different departments such as commenting on the Company's socio-economic policy and community engagement strategy. Over the last few months they have also had the opportunity to visit a number of venues including one of the first completed apartments in the Athlete's village, the Press and Broadcast Centres and most recently the Lee Valley White Water Centre the only 2012 venue open to the public ahead of the Games.

To keep up to date with the Legacy Youth Panel you can download the latest newsletter and read their blog here:

somewhereto_

somewhereto_ continues to build momentum across London. In July we held a successful networking event at the View Tube providing an opportunity for young people currently involved in the project to meet, share their experiences and contribute to the development of the programme. (Read one young person's blog here: www.somewhereto.wordpress.com). We also opened up some exciting spaces for our talented performers at the London Youth Games and Inspiration 2012 Open Weekend event.

BigLopFest

BigLopFest 25 June – 01 July '11 was the culmination of the Olympic themed 2010/11 Creative Partnerships Enquiry School Programme. Fundamental was based at the View Tube on the Greenway for the week managing the Viewing Points programme of schools workshops, a family day and schools picnic for 350 pupils from across London. We also ran a drawing workshop for secondary schools with help from our dedicated team of Opening Doors graduate trainees.

Fundamental has been embarking on an exciting new initiative in response to the expected increase in visitors to the area in the run up to the Olympic Games next year. In May we ran a successful architecture tour of Stratford's remarkable transformation as part of LB Newham's Be A Local Tourist weekend which will be repeated as part of Newham's Open House London event. Visit the Starting Point Blog www.startingpointtours.tumblr.com to find out about our range of Tours on offer and how to book or follow us on Twitter @PointTours

Stratford Rising

Fundamental is a member of Stratford Rising – a consortium of organisations that have come together because we believe we can achieve more for the arts and culture in Stratford through joint action and shared expertise. Watch our fabulous new promo film here www.stratfordrising.com/home to find out more.

About Fundamental
